GOVERNMENT’S MOTION TO AMEND JUDGMENT

AND NOW, the United States of America, by its undersigned counsel, submits the following Motion to Amend the Court’s June 9, 2006 judgment in this case pursuant to Rule 36 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. In support of this motion the United States alleges as follows:

1. On June 9, 2006 the Court sentenced the defendant pursuant to a stipulation by the parties, a stipulation which resolved all remaining litigation in this case.
2. While that stipulation, in part, called for imposition of a criminal fine of $900 on the defendant, the judgment filed by the Court inadvertently listed the fine as $1,500.
3. The defendant has brought this discrepancy to the attention of the Government which agrees that the appropriate fine, in accordance with the stipulation, would be $900.
4. Accordingly, the United States requests that the Court amend its judgment to impose a $900 fine in this matter, while leaving all other aspects of the June 9, 2006 judgment unchanged.
5. The defense concurs in this request.

WHEREFORE, for the forgoing reasons, the United States requests that this Court amend the judgement in this case to reflect criminal fine of $900. For the convenience of the Court a proposed form of order is attached.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS A. MARINO
UNITED STATES ATTORNEY
